Fire Safety Poster Contest

*Elementary School

Every year the Morgan Hill Fire Department has a contest for Elementary students. At the end of October, judges will choose posters from each grade level and each participating school for recognition. Winning posters may be used in future fire safety campaigns.

Students should prepare posters of original art work based on fire prevention topics. This year's theme is escape plans and exit drills. Additional topics may be: the safe use of candles, lighters, and matches, preventing burns and scalding injuries, kitchen fires, wildfire prevention and preparedness, escape plans and exit drill in the home. Posters are due October 12th!
